Lace Curtains and Portieres

At Rummage Prices.

THE most remarkable values have developed as a result of our rummaging the various stocks preparatory to stock-taking. The small lots that came to light are being closed out at far less than like goods command in the wholesale markets. Our reason for not duplicating on them and keeping them in regular stock is that we're constantly seeking new goods—new ideas to show you.

Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson gave a small dance, followed by a supper, Saturday night in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt and Representative Longworth.

Senator and Mrs. Foraker will give a dinner tonight.

Mrs. Bonaparte, who has been ill at her apartment at the Portland for the past ten days, is convalescing satisfactorily, and is now sitting up every day. She hopes to be able to return to her Baltimore home the last of this week.

Mrs. J. Van Vechten Olcott will not receive tomorrow.

Of a recently announced engagement a New York paper has the following pleasant mention: "The engagement of Miss George Barker Gibbs, daughter of the late Edward N. Gibbs, at one time treasurer of the New York Life Insurance Company, to Charles H. Sherrill, a member of the Harvard University, is announced. Miss Gibbs is one of the few young women who has a masculine Christian name. She was christened 'George,' and has firmly maintained her right to be so called. She and her mother have moved recently into a beautiful new home in the East Sixties, which is a marvel of artistic decoration. There a musical will be given in February, having leased the home of Mrs. Emma Barnes Story. Miss Gibbs is a young woman, clever and accomplished, a thorough musician, and she speaks at least six modern languages with much fluency."
